

PROCLAMATION

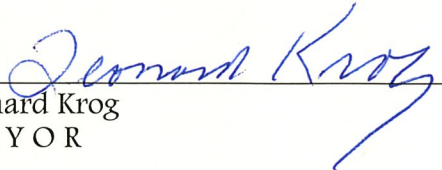

UNITE TO END VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN November 25 – December 10, 2019

- WHEREAS: the United Nations has again called for an international campaign – 16 days of activism against gender-based violence - running from November 25, 2019 (International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women) to December 10, 2019 (Human Rights Day); and
- WHEREAS: violence against women is pervasive around the world, including Canada; and
- WHEREAS: violence against women takes many forms including physical, emotional, and sexual violence; deprivation; bullying; discrimination and harassment; neglect of older women; child marriages, female genital mutilation; sexual violence against women in conflict zones; and
- WHEREAS: in Canada, violence against women is disproportionately experienced by Indigenous women; and
- WHEREAS: by creating worldwide awareness and calling on governments to match adequate and sustained resources to their political commitments: we will find solutions to end gender-based violence.

NOW THEREFORE I, Leonard Krog, Mayor of the City of Nanaimo, do hereby proclaim that November 25 – December 10, 2019 shall be known as:

UNITE TO END VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN in the City of Nanaimo, British Columbia.

Leonard Krog
MAYOR

Dated this 31st day of October 2019

