Applications open for 2025 Concerts in the Park series

City seeking local musicians to perform in public spaces

Summary

The Parks, Recreation and Culture department is gearing up for the 2025 event season and is on the lookout for local performers for the popular Concerts in the Park series. Taking place from May to August across various locations in Nanaimo, these concerts aim to bring our public spaces to life and showcase local talent. Applications are currently open and will be accepted until 11:59 p.m. on January 19, 2025.
